

Hello Baby v2word

I saw you this morning on the screen
Right arm flailing about your head
Tadpole body wriggling in space
I couldn't see your face

Baby -Hello .
Uninvited,unheralded,unplanned,unplaced
Not mine;yet the force of your existence
Casts a skein over my life
Is already changing my direction
Already changing my perception
Altering my reality
Forcing me to question.

You're coming into all our lives
Dear baby:but let's not make you
The arbitrator of meaning
Let's accept you as you are
So you can be and become.

Lets celebrate your existence
Not hang our lives on it
And wear you down
With the weight of our longings.

I love you.
I'll beat a drum for you
I'll weave a dance for you
Sing a song for you
Until you sing your own.
